1 ① (20世紀半ば: 7語), the Egyptian ②(政府) thought (③) building a new dam. ④{ア What イ That} they wanted to do was to control ⑤(洪水) and provide ⑥(電気) and water for farming. However, there were problems. They knew that the water would rise and flood the ⑦(谷) for several hundred kilometers, and (⑧) many farmers ⑨{ア live イ living} there would have to be moved. ⑩{ア The other イ Another} problem was that the rising water would ⑪(~を覆う) some of Egypt's greatest ⑫(遺跡). The most important of these were the temples of Abu Simbel.

2 (⑬) is more important, people or monuments? ⑭(エジプト政府: 3語) and UNESCO tried to solve the problem. Could they build a dam and save Abu Simbel ⑮(同時に: 4語)? After ⑯{ア much イ many} thought and many meetings, it was decided to build the new dam. The work (⑰) the dam began ⑱{ア at イ on ウ in} January 9, 1960. The water began to ⑲{ア rise イ raise}. There was little time ⑳[leave].
