MC: Hello, everyone. Today we're going to talk about "the Internet." It's about this. "Junior high school students should not use the Internet." Well, Koji, what's your opinion about this topic?

Koji: I think the Internet is very useful. You can get a lot of information from it. When I want to know something, I go to the computer to get the information. So in my opinion, junior high school students should use the Internet more often.

MC: I see. How about you, Maki?

Maki: Well, ① I think the Internet isn't good for children to see. So I think junior high students should not use the Internet and they should wait for some time. When we become adults, I think it's OK if we can tell what is good from what is bad.

Koji: I see what you mean, Maki. But it's OK if we can tell what is good from what is bad.

Maki: No, I don't think so. We need to have age limits. For example, "For ages 18 and up only."

Koji: Wait! Junior high school students have the right to use the Internet.

Maki: No, they should wait until they become adults. The Internet is just a waste of time. ② If we use the Internet too much, we won't have time to study.

MC: Well, what do you think, Jack?

Jack: In my opinion, we can do many things through the Internet. To exchange e-mails is a lot of fun. We can also use online service to study. A Computer is a convenient tool.

Nana: ③ That may be true. But people using the Internet sometimes aren't careful. ④ Using the Internet too much is not good for us. If we always use it, we may stop thinking because using the Internet is easier than reading and thinking. We should read books and think more.
